

Technical Committee Certificates

The quality of material presented at Annual Conferences, and therefore its value in further educating attendees is largely due to the scrupulous control mechanisms exercised by the Conference Technical Committee. All committee members are recognised with appropriate certificates for this contribution to the success of the Annual Conference.