

Pacific Water & Wastewater Association

Pitolau Lusia Sefo Leau

21 September 2017

Membership & Coverage

- Established 1994
- 29 Utilities
- 22 countries
- 2,300 professional staff

The Pacific Perspective

- 10 million people
- 180 million square kilometres
- 81 percent rural
- Small islands, vast distances
- Limited water resources
- Climate variability
- High transaction costs
- Limited capacity for resource management

PWWA Goal

“To serve as the principal water and wastewater voice of, and for the Pacific island nations and utilities; and to develop expertise in the Pacific for the sustainable management of water and wastewater services by shaping a cohesive, proficient and robust water and wastewater sector.”

Strategic Objectives

- Representational
- Collaboration
- Uphold standards
- Skills Development

Sharing information – our tools

- Outreach and training
- Regional platform for meetings and communications
- Annual Conference & Expo
- Water Ministers' Forum
- Young water professionals program

Sharing information – our tools

- Continuous benchmarking
- Bi-annual benchmarking reports
- Performance database and performance-based awards
- Tariff database

Sharing information: New Tools

- Performance gap assessments
- Climate vulnerability of members
- Project database
- Project market place
- Cost efficiency database

Sharing information – new tools con't

- Climate adaptation and climate mitigation actions database
- Assessment of tariff adequacy
- Affordability assessment for new investments, needs for tariff adjustments, subsidies, tariff variability within utility
- Communication tools for utilities' customers
- Help desk for utilities, customers and donors

10 Years of Information Sharing at Annual Conferences

We are moving to a new decade of PWWA – we need help!

Pacific Water & Wastewater Association

Level 4, FMFMII Building
Eleele-fou, Apia SAMOA

P.O. Box 868

Telephone: (685 30326)

www.pwwa.ws

Contact Us!