

Mark Baker-Jones

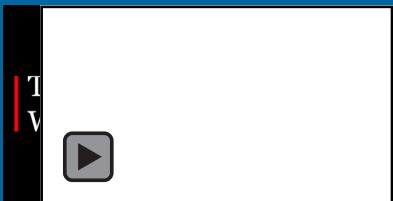

How climate reporting obligations may impact the water sector

water
NEW ZEALAND
CONFERENCE & EXPO
17-19 OCTOBER 2023
Tākina, Te Whanganui-a-Tara Wellington

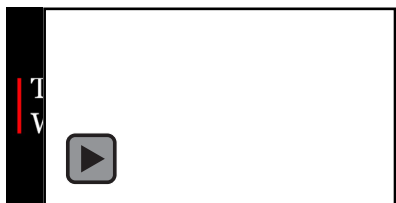

Climate reporting and the water sector

- Emerging Transparency in Business
- Physical and Policy Challenges
- The Need for Public Disclosure
- Reporting vs Revelation
- Beyond the Window: What Are You Revealing?
- Who is Looking at This Reporting?

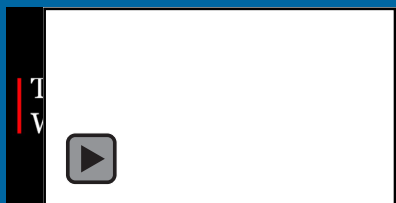

Climate reporting and the water sector

- The Regulatory Landscape: Mandating Climate Risk Disclosure
- Identification of Risks and Opportunities
- SMEs: The Vulnerable Yet Opportunistic
- Efficient Allocation of Capital: The Core Objective
- Routine Consideration of Climate Change
- Improving Financial System Resilience

Climate reporting and the water sector

- Implications for the Water Sector
- Direct and Indirect Impact of Mandatory Disclosures
- Understanding Transition Risks
- Managing Transition Risks and Identifying Opportunities

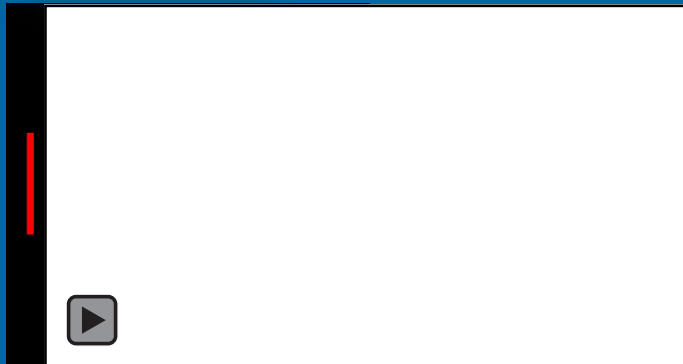

Mark Baker-Jones

Director

- +64 21 719 806
- mark.baker-jones@whakahaere.com
- www.whakahaere.com

We Are You. Ko Tātou Tahi

water
NEW ZEALAND
CONFERENCE & EXPO
17-19 OCTOBER 2023
Tākina, Te Whanganui-a-Tara Wellington